

Play: Coach Patients with Brief Action Planning

1

Review Brief Action Planning training materials with your team, and discuss how to create a supportive environment for patients.

2

With patients' permission, develop Brief Action Plans through the three key questions.

3

Check in with patients to see how the plans went, and repeat the planning process with learning from the previous plans.

4

Check in with the team to share learnings about Brief Action Planning with patients.