

Play: Link Patients to Community Resources

1

Identify community resources that can help with your patients' most critical needs.

2

Develop relationships with community resources to provide warm hand-offs.

3

Refer patients to resources, identifying funding to pay for services where possible.

4

Follow up with patients to find out if they got help, and update your list of resources based on their feedback.